)	STIPULATION AND ORDER EXTENDING
vs.)	DEADLINE FOR SELF-SURRENDER

Defendant.)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Phillip Talbert, United States Attorney, through James R. Conolly, Assistant United States Attorney, attorney for Plaintiff, Heather Williams, Federal Defender, through Assistant Federal Defender Douglas J. Beevers, attorneys for Daniel Andrew Walker, that the self-surrender date which is currently set for November 7, 2024 be continued to November 14, 2024, by 12:00 p.m.

The reason for extending the self-surrender date is that the Bureau of Prisons designated a facility just 3 days before Mr. Walker's self-surrender date. Defendant had requested and was expecting a Texas designation but Defense agrees the designation is an appropriate one. Defense requests a 1 week extension on the date of self surrender to enable Mr. Walker to travel from Texas to Kansas.

AUSA James Conolly has indicated that he does not oppose this extension time to self-surrender.
